SPArties minimum age requirement is 16 years old with a signed parental consent form. Children 16 years of age or younger may only participate in adult SPArties if they are accompanied by a parent or guardian who is also having services.

Pregnant women in their first trimester and guests currently undergoing chemotherapy treatments can not have a full body massage. Any person with a serious/chronic medical condition and pregnant women, at ANY stage in the pregnancy, MUST submit a permission letter from their current medical practitioner allowing them to have SPArties Services. Please advise SPArties of ANY chronic medical condition in advance of your event and supply the appropriate permission statement. Those who fail to do so, will be denied services.
